

Letter from Alexander Graham Bell to Mabel Hubbard Bell, September 1884, with transcript

Alexander Graham Bell to Mabel (Hubbard) Bell. Tremont House, Saturday night, In September, 1884. My darling May:

Thank you ever so much for helping me so much with my diagrams. I caught the train so I will be able to leave for New York tonight.

If the Limited runs on Sunday as I think it does I shall be able to get on to Philadelphia tomorrow as I wish.

I have just finished inking in the diagrams and they look very nice as they lie on the floor — and very instructive too. I am sure they will produce a great impression in Philadelphia.

I hope Maguire will be there so that we may prepare an abstract for the newspapers. With much love to my babies.

Your loving husband, Alec. P. S. Address Continental Hotel — Philadelphia.
